NOTE: Due to the February 14, 2024 Memorandum posted by the New York State Unified Court System's Office of Court Administration, please be advised of the following rules regarding local criminal record searches:

A member of the public must provide, at minimum, both the name and date of birth of an alleged defendant in order to request a criminal record search.

The cost of a search of a name, pursuant to CPLR 8020, is $5.00 per two-year period searched. Any variations in spelling of the name or date of birth is considered a separate search with additional fees charged.

Requestors may be limited to 10 searches per day due to volume, at the discretion of the Erie County Clerk's Office.

Payment for searches must be exact; no refunds will be given for payment overages.
