- 12. Compilation and distribution of code
- 13. Laws repealed
- 14. Effective date

Section 1. Short title. This local law may be cited as the Erie county code of ethics.

(If additional space is needed, please attach sheets of the same size as this and number each)

Section 2. Purpose and scope. This code is enacted pursuant to article eighteen of the general municipal law and in recognition of the policy of the state of New York and the county of Erie to maintain the highest standards of integrity in the public service. It is the intent of this code to establish reporting standards at least as high as those established in chapter eight hundred thirteen of the laws of New York of nineteen hundred eighty-seven. It is the intent of the legislature to exercise all authority granted under subdivision three of section eight hundred twelve of the general municipal law. This code shall be in addition to all other restrictions, standards and provisions pertaining to the conduct of county officers and employees.

Section 3. Definitions. As used in this code:

a. The term "candidate for elected office" shall mean a person who seeks to be designated, nominated or elected to the office of county executive, county legislator, district attorney, county clerk, sheriff, or county comptroller and who has (1) taken the action necessary to qualify himself for nomination for election or election or (2) received contribution or made expenditures with a view toward bringing about his nomination for election or election.

b. The terms "constituted committee" and "political committee" as used in subdivision (f) of this section shall have the same meanings as in section 14-100 of the election law.

c. The term "elected official" shall mean the county executive, a member of the county legislature, the district attorney, the sheriff, the county comptroller and the county clerk.

d. The term "interest" means a direct or indirect pecuniary or material benefit accruing to a covered individual or his relative, as defined in this section.

e. The term "ministerial matter" shall have the same meaning as ascribed to such term by subdivision one of section seventy-three of the public officers law.

f. The term "officer or employee" shall mean the head or heads of any department, division, special district or other administrative unit of county government and their deputies and assistants; and such others who hold policy-making positions, as annually determined by the appointing authority and set forth in a written instrument which shall be filed with the Erie county board of ethics during the month of February. Said designation of those employees and officers as "policy making" may be challenged by the designated employees or officers upon filing a written petition in opposition to such designation within thirty days from the date of the filing of such designation with the Erie county board of ethics. The aforementioned board of ethics shall upon receipt of a petition in opposition promptly make a determination as to the petition's merits upon a majority vote of a quorum of the Board, and shall notify all interested parties within ten days of its decision.

g. The term "political party official" shall mean: (i) any chairman of a county committee elected pursuant to section 2-112 of the election law, or his or her successor in office, who received compensation of expenses, or both, from constituted committee or political committee funds, or both, during the report period aggregating thirty thousand dollars or more; (ii) any person designated by the rules of a county committee as the "county leader" or "chairman of the executive committee", or by whatever other title designated, who pursuant to the rules of a county committee or in actual practice, possesses or performs any or all of the follow duties or roles, provided that such person received compensation or expenses, or both, from constituted committee or political committee funds, or both, during the reporting aggregating thirty thousand dollars or more:

- (1) The principal political, executive and administrative officer of the county committee;
- (2) The power of general management over the affairs of the county committee;
- (3) The power to exercise the powers of the chairman of the county committee as provided for in the rules of the county committee;
- (4) The power to preside at all meetings of the county executive committee, if such a committee is created by the rules of the county committee or if such committee exists de facto, or any other committee or subcommittee vested by such rules with, or having de facto, the power of general management over the affairs of the county committee at times when the county committee is not in actual session;
- (5) The power to call a meeting of the county committee or of any committee or subcommittee vested with the rights, powers, duties or privileges of the county committee pursuant to the rules of the county committee, for the purpose of filling an office at a special election in accordance with section 6-114 of the election law; for the purpose of filling a vacancy in accordance with section 6-116 of such law; or for the purpose of filling a vacancy or vacancies in the county committee which exist by reason of an increase in the number of election districts within the county occasioned by a change of the boundaries of one or more election districts, taking effect after the election of its member, or for the purpose of determining the districts that the elected members shall represent until the next election at which such members of such committee are elected; provided, however, that in no event shall such power encompass the power of a chairperson of an assembly district committee or other district committee smaller than a county and created by the rules of a county committee, to call a meeting of such district committee for such purpose;

(6) The power to direct the expenditure of funds by the county committee; or

(7) The power to procure from one or more bank accounts of the county committee the necessary funds to defray the expenses of the county committee.

h. The term "relative" shall mean such individual's spouse, child, stepchild, stepparent, or any other person who is a direct descendant of the grandparents of the reporting individual or of the reporting individual's spouse.

i. The term "spouse" shall mean the husband or wife of the reporting individual unless living separate and apart from the reporting individual pursuant to: (i) a judicial order, decree or judgement; or (ii) a legally binding separation agreement.

j. The term "unemancipated child" shall mean any son, daughter, stepson or stepdaughter who is under age eighteen, unmarried and living in the household of the reporting individual.

Section 4. Financial disclosure. Every elected official, employee, and each political party official subject to the reporting provisions of this section, shall, on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, file with the Erie county board of ethics an annual statement of financial disclosure containing the information and in the form set forth in section seven of this local law. Such information shall relate to the calendar year immediately preceding the year of filing.

a. A person who is required to file a disclosure statement and who timely filed with the internal revenue service an application for automatic extension of time in which to file an individual income tax return of the immediately preceding calendar or fiscal year shall be required to file such a financial disclosure statement on or before May fifteenth, but may, without being subject to any civil penalty for on account of deficient statement, indicate with respect to any item of the disclosure statement that information with respect thereto is lacking but will be supplied in a supplementary statement of financial disclosure which shall be filed on or before the seventh day after the expiration of the period of such automatic extension of time in which to file such individual income tax return, provided that failure to file or to timely file such supplementary statement of financial disclosure or the filing of an incomplete or deficient supplementary statement of financial disclosure shall be subject to the notice and penalty provisions of this section respecting annual statements of financial disclosure as if such supplementary statement were an annual statement.

b. A person who is required to file an annual financial disclosure statement with the temporary state commission on local government ethics, and who is granted additional time within which to file such statement due to justifiable cause or undue hardship, in accordance with required rules and regulations on the subject adopted pursuant to the applicable statutes, shall file such statement within the additional time granted.

c. (i) As used in this section, the terms "party", "committee" (when used in conjunction with the term "party"), "designation", "primary", "primary election", "nomination", "independent nomination", "ballot", and "uncontested office" shall have the same meanings as those contained in section 1-104 of the election law.

(ii) Candidates for elected office who filed designating petitions for nomination at a primary election shall file such statement within seven days after the last day allowed by law for the filing of designating petitions naming them as candidates for the next succeeding primary elections.

(iii) Candidates for independent nomination for elected office who have not been designated by a party to receive a nomination shall file such statement within seven days after the last day allowed by law for the filing of independent nominating petitions naming them as candidates for elected office in the next succeeding general or special election.

(iv) Candidates for elected office who receive the nomination of a party for a special election or who receive the nomination of the party other than at a primary election, whether or not for an uncontested office, shall file such statement within seven days after the date of the meeting of the party committee at which they are nominated.

d. Such statements shall be filed with the Erie county board of ethics as established by section five of this local law.

e. The Erie county board of ethics shall obtain from the Erie county board of elections, lists of all candidates for elected office, and from such lists shall determine and publish lists of those candidates who have not, within ten days after the required filing date for filing such statement, filed the statement required by this section.

f. Political party officials and any person required to file such statement who commences employment after May fifteenth of any year shall file such statement within thirty days after commencing employment or of taking the position of a political party official.

g. A person who is subject to the filing requirements of both subdivision two of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law and of this section may satisfy the requirements of this section by filing a copy of the statement filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a with the Erie county board of ethics on or before the filing deadline provided in such section seventy-three-a, notwithstanding the filing deadline otherwise imposed by this subdivision.

h. For purposes of compliance with subdivision (g) of section eight hundred twelve of the general municipal law, any such filings for Erie county shall be made with the Erie county board of ethics.

i. An elected official who is simultaneously a candidate for elected office shall satisfy the filing deadline requirements of this section by complying only with the deadline applicable to one who holds such elected office.

j. A candidate whose name will appear on both a party designating petition and on an independent nominating petition for the same office or who will be listed on the election ballot for the same office more than once shall satisfy the filing deadline requirements of this section by complying with the earliest applicable deadline only.

Section 5. Disclosure of interest in county business.

a. Any elected official, officer or employee or political party official, as defined in this local law, who has, or later acquires an interest, direct or indirect, in any actual or proposed contract with the county, shall publicly disclose the nature and extent of such interest in writing to the clerk of the county legislature as soon as he has knowledge of such actual or prospective interest. Such written disclosure shall be time stamped by the clerk and received as an official record of the legislature of such body.

b. When a member of the Erie county legislature must take official action on a matter in which he has a substantial personal economic interest distinct from that of the general community or a substantial class of the general community or his constituents, he should consider divesting himself of the interest, if he can do so without undue hardship. His decision in that regard shall be conclusive. Regardless of whether he divests himself of such interest, he shall disclose it in a concise written statement to the clerk of the legislature, who shall time stamp and receive such statement as an official record of the legislature, provided that divestment of such an interest need not be reported if more than one year has passed since such divestment. If he does not divest himself of that interest, he must abstain from participation in such action.

Section 6. Prohibited activities. No elected official, county officer or employee shall:

a. directly or indirectly, solicit any gift, or accept or receive any gift having a value of seventy-five dollars or more, whether in the form of money, service, loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, thing or promise, or in any other form under circumstances in which it could reasonably be inferred that the gift was intended to influence him, or could reasonably be expected to influence him, in the performance of his official duties or was intended as a reward for any official action on his part;

b. disclose confidential information acquired by him in the course of his official duties or use such information to further his personal interests;

c. receive, or enter into any agreement, express or implied, for compensation for services to be rendered in relation to any matter before any county agency of which he is an officer, member or employee or of any county agency over which he exercises administrative discretion or to which he has the power to appoint any member, officer or employee; or

d. receive or enter into any agreement, express or implied, for compensation for services to be rendered in relation to any matter before any agency of the county, whereby his compensation is to be dependent or contingent upon any action by such agency with respect to such matter, provided that this paragraph shall not prohibit the fixing at any time of fees based upon the reasonable value of the services rendered, provided, however, that this section shall not be applicable to any county officer or employee who does not receive compensation by reason of his county position, not to any matter before a county agency which does not possess substantial discretion in the matter, not to any judicial proceeding in any county court or any other court;

e. He shall not, after the termination of service or employment with such municipality, appear before any board or agency of the county of Erie in relation to any case, proceeding or application in which he personally participated during the period of his service or employment or which was under his active consideration. In light of the legislative involvement in all levels of county government this prohibition on appearances shall apply to members of the Erie County Legislature for a period of (1) year after their termination of service.

f. He shall not act as an attorney, nor be retained as an expert, rendering professional services in any legal action brought against the county of Erie arising out of personal injury or property damage or any lawful benefit authorized by law, while he is an elected official, officer or employee of the county of Erie. Nothing in this Code of Ethics shall be deemed to bar or prevent the timely filing by a present or former county officer or employee of any claim, account, demand, or suit against the county of Erie or any agency thereof on behalf of himself or any member of his family arising out of personal injury or property damage or for any lawful benefit authorized or permitted by law.

g. utilize any county equipment, materials, supplies or property for personal gain or benefit, with the exception of incidental use.

h. No elected official, officer, employee or relative as defined in section 3 sub h of this local law acting in an individual, or business capacity in which the individual is a sole proprietor, general partner or stockholder in a closely held corporation in which he holds fifty percent or more of the stock of said corporation shall (1) sell any goods or provide services having a value in excess of $100.00 to any agency of the county or to contract for or provide such services for or to any private entity when a power to contract, appoint or retain on behalf of such private entity is exercised directly or indirectly, by an agency of the county or an officer or employee thereof, unless such goods or services are sold or provided pursuant to an award or contract let after public notice and upon competitive bidding.

1. in addition to any penalty contained in any other provision of law, any person who shall knowingly and intentionally violate this section may be fired, suspended or removed from office or employment in the manner provided by law.

Section 7: Non prescribed activities. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as prohibiting an elected official, officer or employee from:

a. participating in public discussions or advocating any position in any manner in an official or in another capacity without compensation, including but not limited to acting as a public advocate whether or not on behalf of constituents.

b. appearing, unless otherwise prohibited, before all designated courts of law or agencies of the county in a representative capacity if such appearance before such agency is incident to a ministerial matter or with a matter not involved in the normal function or scope of duties of his office or position.

c. appearing before an agency of the county in a representative capacity on behalf of an employee organization in any manner where such appearance is authorized by an employee organization. This proscription does not apply to elected officials.

d. representing or filing any action against an agency of the county, or officer or employee thereof, in which the subject matter involves the normal functions or is within the scope of the duties of his office or position.

Section 8. Annual financial disclosure statement.

Commencing with the calendar year next succeeding the calendar year in which this local law is adopted, the following form of financial disclosure shall be annually filed by all persons required to file financial disclosure statement under this local law:

7. List any position the reporting individual held as an officer of any political party or political organization, as a member of any political party committee, or as a political party town or ward zone leader. The term "party" shall have the same meaning as "party" in the election law. The term "political organization" means any party or independent body as defined in the election law or any organization that is affiliated with or a subsidiary of a party of independent body.

8. (a) If the reporting individual practices law, is licensed by the department of state as a real estate broker or agent or practices a profession licensed by the department of education, give a general description of the principal subject areas of matters undertaken by such individual. Additionally, if such an individual practices with a firm or corporation and is a partner or shareholder of the firm or corporation, give a general description of principal subject areas of matters undertaken by such firm or corporation. Do not list the name of the individual clients, customers or patients.

(b) List the name, principal address and general description or the nature of the business activity of any entity in which the reporting individual or such individual's spouse had an investment in excess of $1,000 excluding investments in securities and interests in real property.

9. List each source of gifts, excluding campaign contributions, in excess of $1,000 received by the reporting individual or such individual's spouse or unemancipated child from the same donor excluding gifts from a relative. Include the name and address of the donor. The term "gifts" does not include reimbursements which term is defined in item 10. Indicate the value and nature of each such gift.

Section 9. Penalties. A reporting individual who knowingly and willfully fails to file an annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and willfully with intent to deceive makes a false statement or gives information which such individual knows or should have known to be false on such statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to this section, shall be assessed a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars. Assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the Erie county board of ethics. For a violation of this subdivision, other than for conduct which constitutes a violation of subdivision twelve of section seventy-three of the public officers law, the board of ethics may, in lieu of a civil penalty, refer a violation to the district attorney and upon such conviction, but only after such referral, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is knowingly understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for failure to file or for false filing of such statement, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The Erie county board of ethics shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized. Such rules shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article three of the state administrative procedure act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition and upon becoming final shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individual in a proceeding commenced against the Erie county board of ethics, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

Section 10. Erie county board of ethics.

a. The Erie county board of ethics, heretofore created by resolution of the Erie county legislature adopted the twenty-ninth day of December nineteen hundred seventy, and continued in existence by Erie county local law number seven of nineteen hundred seventy-three, is continued in existence subject to the provisions of this section.

b. The board shall consist of six members who shall serve five-year terms of office, one such term expiring each year. Members shall be appointed by the county executive subject to confirmation by the county legislature. In the event a vacancy occurs prior to the expiration of a five-year term of office, such vacancy shall be filled for the balance of such term in the same manner as members are appointed to full terms. No more than three members of the same political party shall serve on the board at any time. No member shall be an elected official, a political party officer, a member of a political party committee or have substantial business interests with the county of Erie. One member shall be a county officer or employee, who shall be a non-voting member of the board. All members shall reside in Erie county. All members shall serve without compensation, except that any member who is a county officer or employee shall be entitled to his usual compensation when attending upon the business of the board.

c. The members shall elect a chairman from among themselves.

d. The board shall be the repository for completed annual statements of financial disclosure required by this local law.

e. The board shall have all the powers and duties ascribed to a board of ethics by article eighteen of the general municipal law.

f. Any county officer or employee may make written request to the board to render an advisory opinion as to any question concerning the application of the Erie county code of ethics or article eighteen of the general municipal law to his own affairs, or if he be the head of a county department, administrative unit, or other agency of the county, the affairs of any of his subordinates. The board shall disclose its opinion only to the person who has requested it or in relation to whose affairs the opinion has been requested. To the extent that it can do so without disclosing the identity of the person who has requested the opinion or in relation to whose affairs the opinion has been requested, and subject to such omissions as may be appropriate to protect personal privacy, the board shall make its opinions a matter of public record.

g. The board may adopt and amend such rules of procedure as are appropriate.

h. The county executive and the county legislature will make available any support staff necessary for the board of ethics to carry out its duties and functions.

i. The board shall be established thirty days after this law takes effect.

Section 11. Duty to report. Every county officer or employee shall report to the district attorney and the county attorney any action which may reasonably be interpreted as an improper attempt to influence him in the conduct of his office.

Section 12. Validity of claims. Nothing in this code of ethics shall be deemed to bar or prevent the timely filing by a current or former county officer or employee of any claim, account, demand, or suit against the county of Erie or any agency or officer thereof on behalf of himself or any member of his family arising out of personal injury, property damage, or any lawful right or benefit authorized or permitted by law.

Section 13. Compilation and distribution of this code. The county executive shall cause a copy of this code to be compiled with article eighteen of the general municipal law and such other material as he shall deem relevant and shall cause a copy of such compilation to be distributed to every officer and employee of the county within thirty days after the effective date of this local law or as soon thereafter as may be practicable. Every officer and employee elected or appointed thereafter shall be furnished a copy of such compilation within ten days after entering upon the duties of his office of employment.

Section 14. Laws repealed. Erie county local law number seven of nineteen hundred seventy-three as amended by Erie county local law number four of nineteen hundred seventy-five, constituting the Erie county code of ethics, is hereby repealed.

Section 15. Effective date. This local law shall be effective immediately.
