

SAVE THE DATE

Join us at the 1901 World's Fair to Solve
"A Murder Most Illuminating"

Tuesday, August 26th @ 5:30pm

At Buffalo's Pan-American Exposition in 1901, the power suddenly goes out and a man is killed. The suspects are the soon-to-be president Teddy Roosevelt; Louise Bethune, first female architect; Nikola Tesla, a pioneer in electricity; Thomas Edison Jr., son of Tesla's adversary in electricity and Eleanor Mayer, Taylor Swift's Great Grandma. Can you piece together the clues to find out whodunit?

Tickets by pre-sale only: $25.00

Tickets go on sale May 1st

Event to include: Appetizers, Dinner, Dessert,
Coffee/Tea/Water and Murder Mystery Show

*PERIOD DRESS ENCOURAGED BUT NOT REQUIRED!

PRESENTED BY:

