Senior Center Attendant Positions

The Town of Newstead is seeking qualified persons with a minimum high school diploma to fill positions of Senior Center Attendant. Experience with senior citizens or education related to seniors is encouraged but not required.

These positions require a flexible schedule, and applicants must be available to work both day and evening hours, with some weekend hours. Duties will require the individuals to facilitate previously planned programming and day to day events at the Senior Center. This includes a significant amount of food prep, kitchen duties, light cleaning and facilitating transportation via the Center van. A clean license will be required for van driving duties. Seeking skill sets that include self-motivation, multi-tasking and a willingness to collaborate with a small team.

Interested candidates should submit a resume by October 1st, 2025 to:
